Former Millsboro Library Director Sentenced in Theft Case

Wilmington, DE – Today, Attorney General Beau Biden announced that former Millsboro Library Director Cheryl Scheffel pled guilty in Sussex County Superior Court on July 16, 2008 to multiple offenses, including theft of $168,326.39 from the Millsboro Library.

“This ruling sends a clear message to those who would steal from Delaware’s taxpayers that theft of public funds will not be tolerated,” stated Attorney General Joseph R. Biden, III.

Scheffel pled guilty in Sussex County Superior Court before Judge T. Henley Graves to one count of Theft over $100,000, four counts of Forgery 2nd Degree, and one count of Falsifying Business Records. She was ordered to pay $168,326.39 in restitution to the Millsboro Library. She has been ordered to serve 10 consecutive weekends at a Violation of Probation Center, beginning the weekend of July 25, 2008, and to serve 14 years of probation. Scheffel was also ordered to continue treatment with a gambling therapist, to have no contact with any gambling establishment, and to provide proof of self-barring from any gambling facility in Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, and Philadelphia.
